Youth Program Standards:

1. So that all can better focus on learning, physical contact between boys and girls is discouraged while at Camp. Students are requested to refrain from public displays of affection.
2. MODESTY in dress and language is requested:
  - a. Girls should not wear spaghetti strap shirts; bra straps should not be visible (girls will be given a shirt to wear over their outfit).
  - b. Shorts should be of modest length
  - c. No tee shirts that have suggestive language, logos, art, or pictures or which promote alcohol, tobacco, or drug use.
  - d. For any water activities: for boys/girls clothing should not be "see through" when wet; girls - swimwear must be one piece or two piece where the top touches the bottom. Students will be given a shirt to cover their outfit if determined to be inappropriate. Boys should also wear a tee shirt or similar water appropriate attire for upper body.
3. While at Camp, students are expected to participate in all programs being held.
4. Attendance at either the morning or evening service is REQUIRED in order to attend afternoon and evening activities. Family emergencies, work, sports, etc are exempted.
5. Youth are to remember that they represent more than just RCM, they are ambassadors for Christ and are role models for the younger children at Camp and should behave accordingly.
6. Any student requiring an evening pick-up must be done inside the camp grounds NOT at the entrance of Camp. This is a safety issue for students.
7. Respect. Give Your Best. Have Fun.

*I have read and agree to follow these standards and any other standards laid forth by the Rawlinsville Camp Meeting Association or the Youth Ministry Staff.
